The coronation of Napoleon

IMPERIAL DESTINATION

In the admirable circus of mountains that surround it, Ajaccio the elegant, Ajaccio the bright country, welcomes in full sun its charmed visitors. From top of the ramparts of its citadel, she knew how to keep intact the purity of its shore which is said to be one of the most beautiful of the world. Through the water alleys of its old town you will know how to discover its napoleonic route, its prestigious museums, its daily market with multiple flavors. On the mysterious path of its Islands sanguinaires, you will meet voluptuous beaches, coves preserved before to let yourself be captivated by the admirable purple color that these sentinels put on at the end of the day. City, historical, cultural, commercial, coquettish, languid, Ajaccio also knows how to become active, animated, sporty and fun and when we move away from it somewhat little, we easily appreciate the richness and variety of change of scenery which it holds within its reach. Finally, the art of living «to the Ajaccian» will confirm your impression that the sun has knownt o radiate beyond nature, for the heart of its inhabitants, and will make your stay at ajaccio unforgettable.

CITY GENOESE

Originally a fortress was built on the site of the current citadel to defend the Genoese colony that had just founded the city in 1492. The urban plan will become denser, ramparts will fortify the city, then a cathedral will be built. The Bonaparte family settled there at the beginning of the 16th century.

THE CRADLE OF AN EMPIRE

The memory of Napoleon Bonaparte hovers over the city and many are the places, streets, buildings that remind us that in this year 1769 the future Emperor was born. A memory embellished by the many donations to the city from his family, his descendants, his admirers and by the municipality and associations that organize annual pageants in the City. Napoleon 1st is not the only emperor celebrated in the city, his successor Napoleon III is also in tribute to the great benevolence that he demonstrated towards the island.

National House Museum Bonaparte

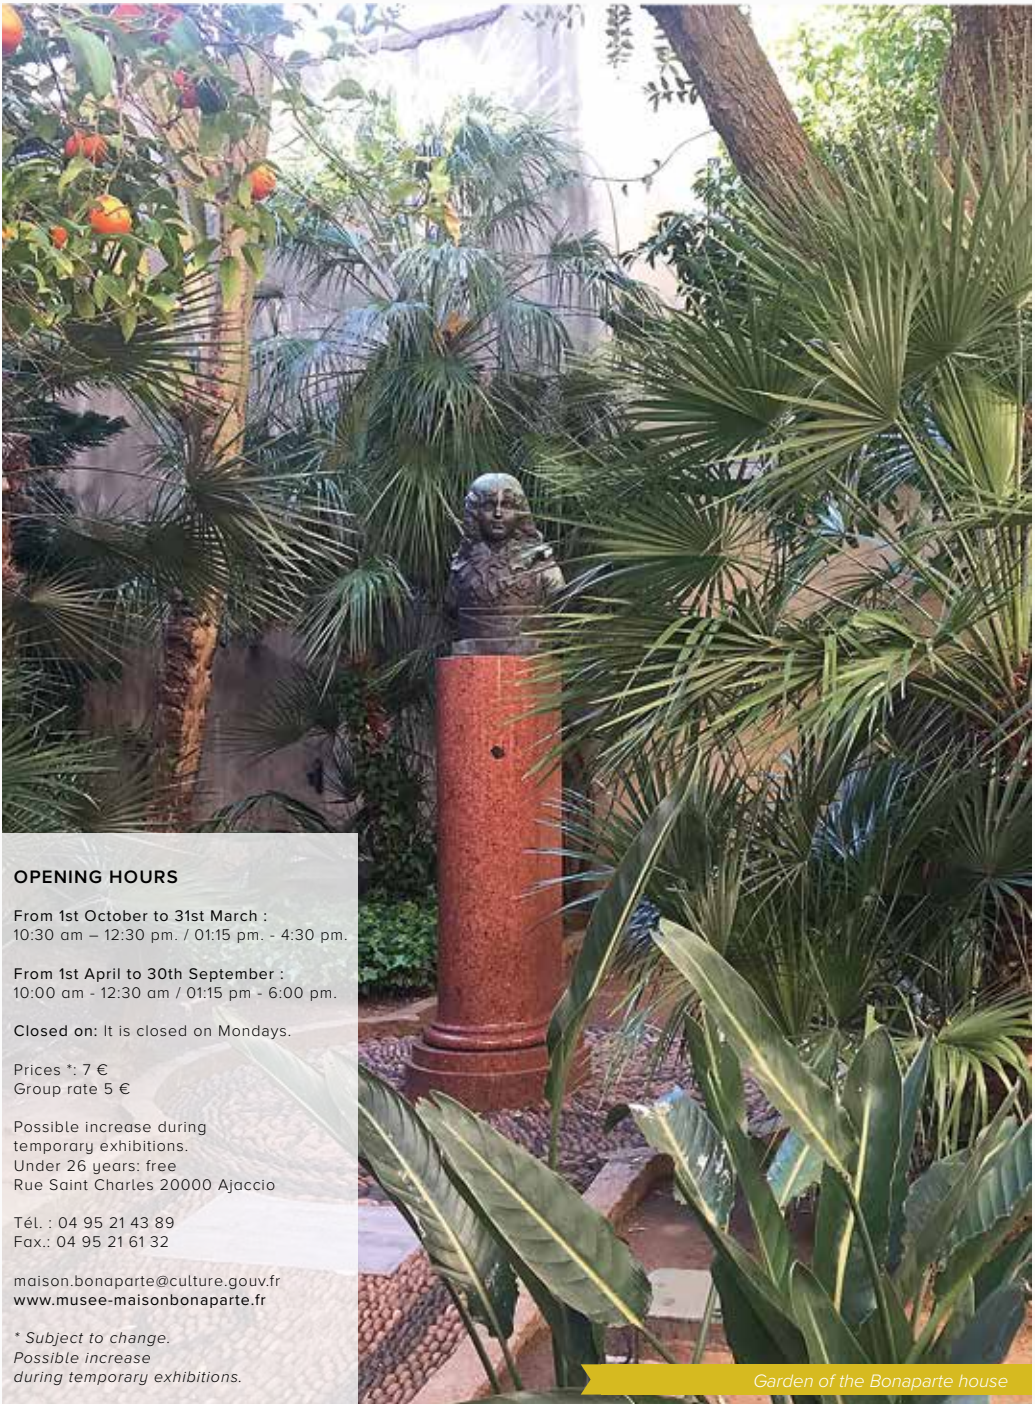

National House Museum Bonaparte Napoleon Bonaparte was born there on August 15769. It is located in the heart of the Genoese city. Household furnishings from the end of the 17th century: memories, weapons, portraits, documents relating to Napoleon and his parents in Corsica. Equipped since the end of the 15th century, the family Bonaparte occupied the house from 1682. This house was the stake of many rivalries and symbolizes social advancement by Charles Bonaparte and Laetitia Ramolino, parents of Napoleon.

St Francois Beach

A CITY AT THE BEACH

Located in the heart of the Gulf of Genoa, Corsica is part of the mediterranean climate zone marking a transition between the Côte d'Azur and the African coast, hence the temperate affinities or subtropical that we find according to the seasons. The City of Ajaccio enjoys a privileged climate that is very sunny and bright, it is constantly under the influence of a sea breeze that softens the hot summer weather.

THE MEMORY OF MEN

The country of Ajaccio is rich in a hinterland composed of a string of villages that, at the gates of the city, have nevertheless known to keep all their authenticity and soul. It's this marriage of urbanity and rurality which makes, today, all the beauty and the richness of this territory. Alata, Cuttoli, Peri, or Valle di Mezzana... so many villages, traditions, places of life that correspond with the nearby big city in a permanent and mutual exchange.

Traditional bread making

THE MEMORY OF STONES

Discover the Country of Ajaccio, it is also penetrating into the heart of vernacular architecture of Corsica. Here a mill, there a washhouse, in the distance Of a chapel... which are as much testimonies of the way of life of the corsicans for centuries. If the village habits and customs have naturally evolved, some traditions remain alive in our villages. Therefore, the restarting of an old oven will be an opportunity to meet again around a «Spuntinu»* and taste one of these moments of sharing and conviviality of which Corsica has the secret.

THE MEMORY OF TRADITIONS

Whether it is popular or religious traditions, harvesting with family, hunting parties or banquets of village, Ajaccio and its region perpetuate an art of living where the notions of conviviality, social bond or transmission take place still with all their meaning.

Tél : 04 95 10 90 00
www.mairie-afa.com

Originally a hamlet of Bocognano populated by shepherds of the upper-Gravona in transhumance in the plains of the Mezzana, Afa is a young municipality created in 1851 and made up of four hamlets built around its church. Under the silhouette of Monte

Gozzi, a pretty recognized climbing spot of the region, it has kept its architectural cachet with its small stone houses, its ovens bread restored and rekindled at the opportunity for convivial festivities. Afa does not remain a community in full expansion with strong demographic growth, many shops, community life and sports-life and an agro-pastoral tradition still alive.
